Mozilla Firefox 3.0 Is the Best Browser for Web

- Walt Mossberg, June 2008, The Wall Street Journal

“My verdict is that Firefox 3.0 is the best Web browser out there right now, and that it tops the current versions of both IE and Safari in features, speed and security.”

CNET Editor's Choice

- Robert Vamosi, June 2008, CNET

“If you haven't already tried Firefox, what are you waiting for? Firefox 3 remains our Editors' Choice over Microsoft Internet Explorer and Opera.”

Building a Better Browser: Firefox Keeps Innovating

- Rob Pegoraro, June 2008, Washington Post

“There may be no easier upgrade to your Web experience than a switch from Internet Explorer to Firefox.”

PC Magazine Editor's Choice

- Michael Muchmore, June 2008, PC Magazine

“This new version of Firefox brings it to the head of the class in security, speed (except for startup speed), standards compatibility, and thrifty memory usage. In addition, its powerful new location bar enormously facilitates browsing.”

Firefox 3 Browser is Nifty – and Packed with Handy Features

- Edward C. Baig June 2008, USA Today

“Many of us in recent years have been drawn to a feature-rich browser called Firefox from the non-profit Mozilla organization...I've generally had a very good experience testing Firefox 3 on Windows PCs and Macs. (It also works on Linux.) It's snappier than Internet Explorer and uses less memory.”

Why Firefox Matters

- Brain Caulfield, June 2008, Forbes

“Firefox has become one of the most important pieces of software around today.”
